503.276.2197 | ajacobsen@barran.com | www.barran.com

Allison Jacobsen practices in the area of employee benefits, working with employers, management, and business owners to design, implement, and terminate various compensation and benefits plans. She also counsels clients on health care issues, including COBRA and HIPAA compliance. Her diverse background of handling disputes in contracts, business litigation, insurance coverage, and disability law offers clients efficient and proactive legal solutions that take into account the broader needs of each organization. Experience in private practice in Oregon and Washington, as well as two years clerking in the Chancery division of the Circuit Court of Cook County in Illinois, has exposed her to a wide range of industries, providing the opportunity to hone her skills and exceed client expectations.

Allison graduated cum laude from Gonzaga University School of Law, where she served as the Managing Editor of Gonzaga Journal of International Law. She earned her B.A. at the University of Southern California and is licensed to practice in both Oregon and Illinois.
