

A T T O R N E Y S

Employment | Labor | Benefits | Higher Education
www.barran.com | 503.228.0500

DONOVAN L. BONNER

503.276.2175 | dbonner@barran.com | www.barran.com

Donovan Bonner represents employers in employment advice and litigation, serving private and public entities of all sizes and industries, including higher education institutions. With past experience in contract negotiations, mergers and acquisitions, and general litigation, he effectively navigates the laws affecting various types of businesses. Donovan’s prior experience as a Legal Extern at Nike, Inc. and as a Law Clerk at Bonneville Power Administration has built a solid foundation of proficiency in reviewing property agreements, conducting comprehensive research on corporate, securities, trademark, and indemnity laws, and contract negotiations with general and outside counsel. Donovan’s time in-house provided extensive experience in legal research and writing services for general counsel, reviewing and writing memorandums on various statutory compliance, sales, litigation issues, and support in finance, procurement, and general litigation matters. In addition to Donovan’s comprehensive legal experience, his commitment to our clients is unwavering. Donovan understands the importance of tailoring his work to our clients’ needs, and thoughtfully collaborates and communicates with the objective of solving workplace challenges in an efficient and effective manner.

Donovan earned his B.S. at Menlo College, and his J.D. at the University of Oregon School of Law, where he served as the Editor of the Oregon International Law Review. He was also very active in the community throughout his time at the University of Oregon School of Law and held a wide variety of leadership roles. Donovan served as a Board Member of the Law and Entrepreneurship Student Association, Conference Director of the Sports & Entertainment Law Forum, led his team as a Captain of the Legal Basketball Association, and was a member of the Law of Intellectual Property Student Association. Throughout Donovan’s undergraduate and legal education, he has consistently prioritized diversity initiatives in his professional and local community through his contributions to the Menlo College Black Student Union, where he served as President, and the University of Oregon’s Black Law Students Association.

Areas of Practice

- Employee Handbooks
- Employment Law Advice & Litigation
- Employment Training
- Higher Education Representation
- On-Site Employment Law Training
- Social Media
- Workplace Investigations

Professional Experience & Affiliations

Gus J. Solomon Inns of Court: Member (2017-2018)

Nike, Inc.: Legal Extern (2017)

Bonneville Power Administration: Law Clerk (2016-2017)

University of Oregon School of Law: Law and Entrepreneurship Student Association, Board Member (2015-2017); Sports & Entertainment Law Forum, Conference Director (2014-2017); Legal Basketball Association, Captain (2014-2017); Black Law Students Association, Member (2014-2017); Law of Intellectual Property Student Association, Member (2014-2017)

Civic Activities

Urban League of Portland Young Professionals, Member (2017-present)

Education First: Scholar Selection, Chair (2016-present)

Representative Presentations

Barran Liebman Client Training: “Labor & Employment Law Update”; “Sexual Harassment Culture Shift: Your Business, Your People, Your Work Environment,” (4/11/18)

Representative Publications

“Supreme Court Cuts the Cake Thin in Colorado Bakery Case,” Barran Liebman Electronic Alert, June 6, 2018

“Digital Accessibility: Building a Web-Based Environment Available to All,” Association of Corporate Counsel Oregon Newsletter, May 29, 2018

“Are Reasonable Accommodations ‘For the Birds?’,” Daily Journal of Commerce, March 23, 2018

Admitted to Practice

Oregon

U.S. District Court, District of Oregon

Academics

University of Oregon School of Law (J.D., 2017): Oregon International Law Review, Operations/Business/Symposium Editor

Menlo College (B.S., 2014): President’s Scholarship Recipient (2010-2014); Richard F. O’Brien Award Recipient (2013-2014)

